

I think you should leave XM be. It's a subscription service. I seriously doubt that XM's traffic service will drive a news radio station on the AM band out of business. The fact that XM has traffic so frequently helps people more than traffic on the 10's. I also enjoy hearing traffic from other cities quite frankly. This would be silly if you pass a bill banning XM from providing a service to its paying customers.